INJURED MOTORMAN IS OUT ONCE MORE

Tom O. Leonard, Injured in Bridge Accident, Is Recovering.

Tom O. Leonard, the motorman who fell with the El Paso car at the Santa Fe bridge, appeared on the streets Saturday for the first time since the accident. Mr. Leonard walked on crutches, but his physician predicts that he will be well within a month. Since his discharge from Providence hospital, the motorman has been at his home, 191 Newman street. While in the hospital he received many remembrances from friends made on his "run." Not only the customs and immigration inspectors, but residents of Juarez offered flowers and cigars to the injured carman.

"I want to express my thanks through The Herald," says Mr. Leonard, "to the many friends who remembered me at the hospital. I didn't know I had so many friends before."

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasant to take. Sold by all druggists.

SENTENCE. SERMONS IN PULPITS OF EL PASO

There is no promise for the person who seeks heaven with self interest supreme.—Rev. P. J. Rice, First Christian church.

By the grace of God, keep cool within, if you can not keep cool without.—Rev. Charles L. Overstreet, First Presbyterian church.

He who would win men to Christ must know his Bible and know how to use it.—Rev. Alfred J. McElwain, Houston Square Baptist.

Every moment spent in prayer—not saying one's prayer, but in actual prayer—is a moment spent in rekindling, or adding fuel to the fire of God within the soul.—Rev. C. O. Beckman, First Methodist church.

We are healed by the stripes which the savior bore, and the brand which the apostle Paul wore is emblematic of the service we should all render.—Rev. R. T. Hanks, Calvary Baptist church.

Theoretical faith consists in the ascent of the understanding that Jesus is the savior of a lost world, and, in addition, in the consent of the will to accept Jesus as our individual savior, but practical faith consists in a dedication of everything that we are and have to Him in service.—Rev. C. S. Wright, Trinity Methodist church.

There is no sense in wasting our time in discussing minor points of difference. Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists and all who have the spirit of Jesus Christ should stand together on a common platform and preach the gospel of repentance to a sin-cursed world.—Rev. Kenneth Brown at East El Paso Presbyterian church.

True conformity to no system of ethics, though perfect through no self-culture, though inspired by and patterned after the most lofty, God-like example, can any man ever experience the life that Jesus Christ came to give; except a man be born again, he cannot see the kind kingdom of God; marvel not, ye must be born again.—Rev. John M. Shive, Westminster Presbyterian church.

The personal or financial loss of property by fire or other disaster touches our hearts very tenderly, but untimely and disastrous destruction of human life produces an inexpressible sorrow and our entire city is thrown into mourning by the death of our noble mayor and of the other brave men who went down under the crushing walls, representing a personal loss suffered by many others.—Rev. R. B. Smith, First Baptist church.

We have endeavored by every possible means to have his attorneys accept service of the summons and complaint, but they would not grant this courtesy.

We are just at the present moment endeavoring to secure an order from the court permitting us to serve him by what we call substitute service. If this is signed by the court, which we hope it will be, we will call the summons on Mr. Hearst's door and he will be compelled to appear in the action.

High impossible for a personal service to be effected.

CHURCH NOTES.

First Presbyterian.

Rev. C. L. Overstreet returned Friday from a vacation on Hermosa beach. His family will remain until September.

All regular services are being held except those Sunday evening, which are postponed for a few weeks.

Calvary Baptist Notes.

The missionary society will meet Tuesday at 4 o'clock at the residence of J. H. McCullough, 1714 Montana street.

First Methodist Notes.

The fourth quarterly conference of the year will be held Wednesday at 9 o'clock.

Altura Park Chapel.

Rev. Kenneth Brown will preach each night this week in the Altura Presbyterian chapel, Fort Bliss car line, corner of Nashville street.

HEAVY RAIN WITH THE STARS SHINING

From an apparently clear sky, it rained a regular soaking upon El Paso Saturday evening about 8 o'clock while the downtown streets were full of people. With the moon and stars shining brightly, one lonely little cloud poured the water onto the city and soaked the shoppers and others of the Saturday night crowd. Then a high wind blew for a time and then the evening cleared off beautifully. Not all the city was covered, but most of it was wet down thoroughly.

Sunday about 2 o'clock it rained again and later, about 4 o'clock there was another shower sufficient to make the flowers look fresh. The showers served to cool the air materially.

FALLS FROM A CAR.

Joe Morales, who lives at Third and Stanton streets, tried to catch a moving street car in Juarez Sunday evening, and took a tumble. Police carried him to the police station where Dr. B. F. Stevens, of El Paso, found that the man's condition was more like "bum house" than the fall, although Morales carried a face of fresh beekstake appearance.

H. Bloomstein, of El Paso, is registered at Hotel Virginia, Long Beach, Cal.

S.S.S. NO HARMFUL MINERALS PURELY VEGETABLE

There are certain mineral medicines which will temporarily remove the external symptoms of Contagious Blood Poison, and shut the disease up in the system for awhile, but when the treatment is left off the trouble always returns in worse form. But that is not all; the delicate membranes and tissues of the stomach and bowels are usually injured by these strong minerals, and frequently stomach trouble, chronic dyspepsia, and mercurial rheumatism are added to the destructive blood poison. S. S. S. is the only remedy that can be used with perfect safety in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison, and with the assurance that a lasting cure will result. This medicine, made entirely of non-injurious roots, herbs and barks of recognized curative and tonic value, removes every particle of the virus from the circulation, and by enriching and strengthening the blood removes every symptom permanently. S. S. S. does not hide or cover up the disease in any way, but cures it by removing it from the system. Home Treatment Book, and any medical advice free to all who write.
